A CAUSE FOR CELEBRATION. A CELEBRATION FOR A CAUSE.

Texas State University invites you to support The Wittliff Collections Festival, a one-day event celebrating the unbridled imagination of Texas and the Southwest. All proceeds will be used to acquire important collections that preserve our region’s creative culture.

THE WITTLIFF FESTIVAL GALA

HONORARY CHAIR
LOUISE O’CONNOR

The gala will feature intimate performances by two musical legends, as well as live and silent auctions with rare treasures from the Lonesome Dove miniseries.

THE WITTLIFF FESTIVAL PANEL DISCUSSIONS

A full day of panel discussions will honor talented and distinctive voices in literature, photography, music, and film whose work captures the Southwest’s unique Spirit of Place.

THE FILMMAKER’S VOICE
Barbara Morgan
moderator
• Van Broughton Ramsey
• Barry Tubb
• Cary White
• Eric Williams

THE PHOTOGRAPHER’S VOICE
David Coleman
moderator
• Kate Brokaw
• Keith Carter
• Graciela Iturbide
• Connie Todd

THE WRITER’S VOICE
John Spong
moderator
• Sarah Bird
• Elizabeth Crook
• Stephen Harrigan
• Lawrence Wright

THE SINGER/SONGWRITER’S VOICE
Joe Nick Patoski
moderator
• Terri Hendrix
• Flaco Jimenez
• Barbara Lynn
• Adrian Quesada

IN MEMORY

BILL WITTLIFF 1940-2019

The world lost a treasure when Bill Wittliff passed away on June 9, 2019. Bill and his wife, Sally, founded The Wittliff Collections at Texas State University in 1986. The inaugural Wittliff Collections Festival will honor Bill’s vision and creative spirit.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
WittliffCollectionsFestival.com
wittliff_fest@txstate.edu
512.245.2313

A limited number of tables beginning at the $10,000 level and VIP corporate sponsorships are still available. Individual tickets are available at $1,000 each.

Wittliff Festival_Spread Ad.indd   All Pages
8/29/19   1:45 PM